*What If
I Am Ready
To Work?*

Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA)

When You're Ready To Work

Substantial
Gainful Activity
(SGA)

Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA)

A measure of your earnings level.

- Substantial work means that you are performing significant physical or mental (or a combination of both) full-or part-time work activity.
- Gainful work means that your work is, or is generally considered, for pay or profit, even if you don't actually make a profit.

When You're Ready To Work

Substantial
Gainful Activity
(SGA)

Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA)

The amount of monthly earnings considered substantial and gainful depends on the nature of your disability and work activity:

- For 2014, if your work earnings average over $1,070 or more per month, and you are not blind, you are working at the SGA level.
- For 2014, if your work earnings are over $1,800 or more per month, and you are blind, you are working at the SGA level.

Timely Progress Review (TPR)

When You're Ready To Work

Timely
Progress
Review (TPR)

TPR

SSDI

SSI

Timely Progress Review (TPR)

The Timely Progress Review measures your success in achieving your work goals.

- You and your Employment Team create an Individual Work Plan (IWP) that includes your work, education, and/or training goals.
- It is the progress you make toward the goals in your IWP that is reviewed every 12 months.

When You're Ready To Work

Timely
Progress
Review (TPR)

A Red Book Example Timely Progress Review

- You are making timely progress if, at your first 12-month review, you have:
  - Worked 3 out of 12 months at the Trial Work Period earnings level.
  - Completed 60% of a full-time course load for 1 year toward a degree or certification, technical, trade or vocational program.
- The number of months per year that you work, and the amount of completion toward your degree, certification, technical, trade or vocational program increase with each 12-month review.

When You're Ready To Work

Timely
Progress
Review (TPR)

Timely Progress Review (TPR)

If you do not meet the TPR requirements:

- You can continue to participate in Ticket to Work, and
- Your cash and health care benefits will not be affected.

However, you will no longer be excused from a scheduled medical Continuing Disability Review.

*What If
I Am Ready
To Work?*

Trial Work Period (TWP)

When You're Ready To Work

Trial Work
Period (TWP)

SSDI

Trial Work Period (TWP)

TWP is a Work Incentive specific to SSDI beneficiaries.

- It is a 9-month time period when you can test your ability to succeed at work.
- It is not necessary for you to work your 9 months in a row.
- As long as you report your work activity to Social Security, you may earn as much as you are able during the 9 months.
  - You will continue to receive your full SSDI benefits.
  - You will continue to receive your healthcare benefits.

When You're Ready To Work

Trial Work
Period (TWP)

Trial Work Period (TWP)

- The 9-month TWP starts the first month you are entitled to SSDI benefits or the month you filed for benefits, whichever is later.
- If you are using your Ticket to Work during the TWP, your Continuing Disability Review (CDR) is postponed. Your benefits may stop before the end of the TWP if you recover medically.

When You're Ready To Work

Trial Work
Period (TWP)

Trial Work Period (TWP)

- After you complete your TWP, you begin your 36-month Extended Period of Eligibility (EPE).
- Social Security evaluates your work and earnings to decide if you can work at the Substantial Gainful Activity (SGA) level:
  - Average over $1,070 for beneficiaries who are not blind
  - Average over $1,800 for beneficiaries who are blind

You Asked. We Answer.

*My Job is Great, but
What About
My Benefits?*

Extended Period of Eligibility (EPE)

When You Succeed At Work

Extended
Period of
Eligibility (EPE)

Extended Period of Eligibility

EPE is a Work Incentive specific to SSDI beneficiaries.

- The 36-month re-entitlement begins the month after Trial Work Period (TWP) ends, even if you are not working that month.
- During the EPE, Social Security can restart your benefits without:
  - A new application
  - A disability determination
  - A waiting period

When You Succeed At Work

Extended
Period of
Eligibility (EPE)

Extended Period of Eligibility

You successfully work your way off benefits if you work above SGA after the 36-month re-entitlement period.

- You may be able to start your benefits again if you stop work within the next 5 years.
- This is the 5-year Expedited Reinstatement (EXR).

You Asked. We Answer.

*My Job is Great, but
What About
My Benefits?*

Expedited Reinstatement (EXR)

When You Succeed At Work

Expedited Reinstatement (EXR)

SSDI

SSI

Expedited Reinstatement (EXR)

- EXR is a Work Incentive that applies to both SSDI and SSI beneficiaries.
- EXR offers a fast track to benefits reinstatement if you worked your way off benefits and make the reinstatement request within 5 years after your benefits stopped.

When You Succeed At Work

Expedited Reinstatement (EXR)

SSDI

SSI

Expedited Reinstatement (EXR)

- While Social Security reviews your benefits reinstatement request, you are eligible to receive temporary benefits for up to 6 months unless Social Security determines you are no longer disabled.
- You may also be eligible for Medicare and/or Medicaid during this period.

You Asked. We Answer.

*My Job is Great, but
What About
My Benefits?*

Medicaid and Medicare

SSI

SSDI

Medicaid Protection for Working Persons with Disabilities

Medicaid and
Medicare

SSI

Your state may allow you to buy Medicaid if you are disabled and no longer entitled to free Medicaid because you are earning money through work.

You may qualify if you:

- Meet the definition of “disabled” under the Social Security Act; and
- Would be eligible for SSI payments if it were not for your earnings.

If you are no longer receiving SSI, your state decides if you are disabled. Your state will not consider whether you are working when it makes that decision.

Continuation of Medicare Coverage

Medicaid and Medicare

- Most people with disabilities who work will continue to receive at least 93 consecutive months of
  - Hospital Insurance (Part A);
  - Supplemental Medical Insurance (Part B), if enrolled;
  - and Prescription Drug coverage (Part D), if enrolled.
- You do not pay a premium for Part A.

Continuation of Medicare Coverage

Medicaid and
Medicare

- The 93 months start the month after the last month of your TWP. To qualify, you must already have Medicare and be working at SGA, but not be medically improved.
- Although cash benefits may stop due to work, you know health insurance will continue. (93 months is 7 years and 9 months.)

Help with Medicare Part A Premiums

Medicaid and
Medicare

If you are under age 65, disabled, and no longer entitled to free Medicare Hospital Insurance Part A because you successfully returned to work, you may be eligible for a program that helps pay your Medicare Part A monthly premium.

To be eligible for this help, you must:

- Continue to have a disabling impairment; and
- Sign up for Premium Hospital Insurance (Part A); and
- Have limited income; and
- Have limited resources; and
- Not already be eligible for Medicaid.

How can you get more information?

Every state has its own Medicaid Office. For help, please call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) (V) or 1-877-486-2048 (TTY).

You will be asked for your Medicare number and transferred to the main menu. Choose other choices and then another question.

You will be transferred to a representative. Be prepared to tell them your state and to write down a toll free number for additional information.
